HONORING CORPORAL KEITH HEACOOK OF THE DELMAR POLICE DEPARTMENT

(Mr. HARRIS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to honor the life and sacrifice of Corporal Keith Heacock, a police officer whose funeral I attended on Monday. He was tragically killed in a violent assault while responding to an early morning domestic disturbance call. As a member of the Delmar Police Department, a police force that straddles the Maryland-Delaware border, Corporal Heacock honorably and selflessly served not just my district, but also the constituents of southern Delaware.

Mr. Speaker, it was appropriate that a man who laid down his life in service to his community was given such a fitting funeral with over 1,000 law enforcement officers paying their final respects.

Coincidentally, this week, we honor the courage and sacrifice of all our men and women in blue nationwide—men and women who literally put their lives on the line every day so that we can live safely in our homes and in our communities. Corporal Heacock leaves behind a widow and a young son.

Mr. Speaker, I ask everyone to join me in praying for his family during this challenging time and for all the families of all the brave men and women who have laid down their lives to protect us.

HONORING OUR HEROES—NATIONAL POLICE WEEK

(Ms. JACKSON LEE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. JACKSON LEE. Mr. Speaker, who are we if we cannot honor and celebrate those who have given their ultimate in the National Police Week?

I want to say to my hometown law enforcement that we mourn Jason Michael Knox, Harold Lloyd Preston, Lemuel Bruce, and Mark C. Brown.

We mourn Christopher Brown, and we mourn Johnny Ramos Sanchez. We mourn Juan Menchaca, we mourn Raymond Scholwinski, and we mourn Ernest Leal.

We thank them. They are our family members, our brothers and sisters. We honor them and express our appreciation for their laying down their lives to save children and to take families out of burning buildings.

We acknowledge Houston law enforcement officers who are now memorialized on the wall of honor, which I intend to introduce into this body's RECORD.

Then I want to acknowledge the legislation that I hope my colleagues will sign, and that is, to honor those who stood tall and fought for us on January 6. This resolution will tell us their story, and that is why I stand today to tell the story of those who have sacrificed for us in this week. They are our family. We honor them, and we mourn them.

Mr. Speaker, as a member of the Law Enforcement Caucus and the Chair of the Judiciary Subcommittee on Crime, Terrorism, and Homeland Security, I know well the service and sacrifice of our neighbors in law enforcement, both in my hometown of Houston, Texas and here in the Capitol.

I would like to take this minute to honor those fallen heroes in the City of Houston over the last year, and would like to reiterate our support for our police officers across the nation and here at the capitol for their duty and sacrifice in the defense of ourselves and our communities.

It is altogether fitting and proper that we do this.

Among those fallen Texans are:

Sergeant Harold Lloyd Preston of the Houston Police Department with 41 years on the force whose watch ended on October 20, 2020, when he was fired upon while responding to a call for assistance involving a domestic disturbance.

Officer Jason Michael Knox of the Houston Police Department, whose watch ended on May 2, 2020, when his aircraft experienced operation control issues and crashed into an unoccupied building during a search mission.

Investigator Lemuel Bruce of the Houston Fire Marshal's Office, whose watch ended on October 16, 2020, due to an ambush while conducting surveillance as part of an ongoing arson investigation.

And those officers who risked exposure to the COVID-19 pandemic in their tireless pursuit for justice and against violence, who contracted the virus in the course of their duties, and who eventually succumbed to the deadly virus:

Investigator Mark C. Brown of the Harris County Constable's Office, whose watch ended on July 26, 2020;

Deputy Sheriff Johnny Tunches of the Harris County Sheriff's Office, whose watch ended November 2, 2020;

Deputy Juan Menchaca, Jr. of the Harris County Sheriff's Office, whose watch ended June 13, 2020;

Sergeant Raymond Scholwinski of the Harris County Sheriff's Office, whose watch ended May 6, 2020; and Senior Officer Ernest Leal of the Houston Police Department, whose watch ended on November 27, 2020.

The National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial is the Nation's monument to law enforcement officers who have died in the line of duty.

Dedicated on October 15, 1991, the Memorial honors federal, state and local law enforcement officers who have made the ultimate sacrifice for the safety and protection of our nation and its people.

Carved on its walls are the names of 22,611 officers who have been killed in the line of duty throughout U.S. history, dating back to the first known death in 1791.

Added to the Wall this year will be the names of 295 police officers killed in the line of duty in 2020.

2020 was one of the deadliest years for law enforcement officers in history.

Mr. Speaker, enshrined on the Memorial Wall of Honor also are the names of 2,052 fallen peace officers from the state of Texas, the most of any state, including 116 members of the Houston Police Department who gave their lives to keep their city safe.

Mr. Speaker, today there are more than 800,000 law enforcement personnel serving the people of our country, the highest amount ever.

About 12 percent of them are female.

These brave men and women risk their lives to keep the peace and keep us safe but they are too often taken by the violence they are working to prevent.

Every 58 hours, a law enforcement officer is killed somewhere in the United States.

There are also 58,627 assaults against our law officers each year, resulting in 16,667 injuries.

Mr. Speaker, on January 6, 2021, the then-President of the United States encouraged his followers to "fight like hell" to disrupt and derail the constitutionally required Joint Meeting of Congress to open, count, and publicly confirm the vote tally of the Presidential electors and announce the persons who had been elected President and Vice President of the United States.

What followed was thousands of domestic terrorists, insurrectionists, and rioters charging the Capitol Building, the bastion of American democracy, with metal pipes, chemical irritants, and other weapons.

In their way the officers of the United States Capitol Police Department, the Metropolitan Police Department of Washington, DC, and other uniformed law enforcement officers stood their ground in defense of American democracy.

There is no finer example of the selfless devotion to duty and love of country, than these officers' valiant, heroic, and courageous response to the assault on the Capitol Building.

At least 138 officers, 73 from the United States Capitol Police Department, and 65 from the Metropolitan Police Department of Washington DC, sustained injuries during the attack on the Capitol Building, several of whom required hospitalization.

The seven hours between the urgent call for help from the Capitol Police to the Metropolitan Police Department and the resumption of work by both Houses of Congress will be indelibly etched in the memories of every law enforcement officer who was on the scene, as it is in the minds of the Senators, Representatives, congressional and support staff, and members of the media corps who were forced to seek safety behind locked doors.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to represent the people of the 18th Congressional District of Texas in paying tribute to the 295 fallen heroes who will be joining the 22,611 gallant men and women who gave the last full measure of devotion to the communities they took an oath to protect and serve.

Mr. Speaker, I ask for a moment of silence in memory of the 295 officers whose names will be added to the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial.

NATIONAL POLICE WEEK

(Ms. HERRELL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. HERRELL. Mr. Speaker, Federal, State, and local law enforcement officers put their lives on the line every day to keep our communities safe. This Police Week, we want to thank the more than 800,000 sworn law enforcement officers for their service, and we want to thank their families.

During Police Week, we also remember the sacrifices made by law enforcement officers. Since 1786, when the first police death was recorded in the U.S., more than 22,000 officers have been killed in the line of duty.

In my home State of New Mexico, 160 police officers have died in the line of duty.

Mr. Speaker, I rise to pay tribute and let our police officers know how much we appreciate them and their service to our communities, our State, and our Nation. We just want to celebrate this Police Week with them and wish them Godspeed and say a prayer to keep them out of harm's way.

VOTING RIGHTS

(Mr. VEASEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. VEASEY. Mr. Speaker, the sacred right to vote is under attack for Black and Hispanic people in the State of Texas.

Dangerous Jim Crow 2.0 voter suppression laws are rapidly advancing across the country and in the Lone Star State right now.

During the 2020 elections, we saw 17 million Texans go out there and risk their lives, especially during the primary when there was still a lot of uncertainty about COVID to go out there so they could cast their ballot. Now only mere months later, Texas leaders in the State legislature are silencing the voices of these very voters by pushing some of the most restrictive voting measures in the entire country. This legislation will do everything from prohibiting local officials from sending out mail-in ballot applications to empowering poll watchers to actually be able to harass people with cell phones and video.

It is crazy, Mr. Speaker, what is going on. It is completely backwards, it is embarrassing, and for me as a Black American, it is embarrassing, because the big lie is being perpetuated by historic racist tropes that Black people are cheating and stealing at the polls.

It is uncalled for, it is unnecessary, it is racist, and it must end. I implore Texas leaders to stop this nonsense and get back to the business of helping
